Week 1: The Realms, Rulers and Peoples of the Britain (1200-1250) (66 items)
☐☐To what extent were the British Isles defined by different nations and peoples? Have historians placed too much weight on the four historical nations in the medieval period?
☐☐How had these nations developed up to the early thirteenth century? What factors held them together?
☐☐How did England and the English differ from the other lands and peoples of the isles?
☐☐What were the defining characteristics of monarchy in Scotland and Wales? How did their status and authority compare with each other and that of the English kings?
☐☐How important were aristocratic connections and identities in defining the lands of Britain and Ireland in the early thirteenth century?
